The Guam Commission for Educator Certification (GCEC) was established by Public Law 29-73 on May 15, 2008. The Commission is governed by a seven (7) member Board of Commissioners appointed by the Governor and confirmed by I Liheslaturan Guåhan.

GCEC certifies educators employed by the Guam Department of Education, DODEA and private schools. Over 3,000 educators have about 5,000 certificates.

Some educators hold more than one or more certificates. Others have moved off-island but still keep their certificates current.

Future Plans & Goals

The Guam Commission for Educator

Certification strives:

- To support student achievement and performance;
- To provide professional development and evaluation;
- To improve the quality of the Guam educator workforce;
- To provide a rigorous system of certification;
- To continue providing quality and efficient customer friendly service.
- To provide a rigorous system of certification by completing and implementing the GCEC Rules and Regulations.

Challenges:

GCEC's greatest challenge is securing adequate funding to fully staff the agency. Lack of personnel is most critical during the peak renewal months - August and January.
